

The Crossroads Connections

"Keeping Families Connected"

September 2019

We are so happy to see the children adjusting so well to their new classrooms and teachers! The children are making new friends, learning new skills and experiencing new activities on a daily basis. With teachers as wonderful as ours, who wouldn't be excited to go to school everyday?

We have a month full of events ahead of us! Our afternoon specials have started and Chapel will start the first week of September, Crossroads Christian Academy is looking forward to Grandparents Day and the Cookie Dough Fundraiser. Please see below for the exact dates. Also, make sure to bring your child's school supplies if you haven't yet.

Don't Forget!

CCA will be closed on Monday, September 2nd in observance of Labor Day.

Employee of the Month

Miss Anahi

Miss Anahi is a very reliable teacher who is always willing to help out wherever needed. She has shown a lot of growth working with children here at Crossroads and I love seeing the compassion she has for them. I look forward to see how much further she will grow at our school!

~Mrs. Cross

Uniform Donations

Parents, don't forget to donate your old uniforms!
There is a red bucket located in the front office in which you can place your donations.

If you are looking for Free Uniforms, please feel free to go through the red bucket and take what you need!
